Delay in launching of new PDS for People Below Poverty Line

*136. SHRI M.A. BABY: Will the Minister of CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether there has been any delay in launching the new scheme of PDS for people below poverty line;

(b) if so, the reasons _herefore; and

(c) the names of the States which have not identified people below poverty line?

THE MINISTER OF FOOD AND MINISTER OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI DEVENDRA PRASAD YADAV): (a) to (c) A Statement on the Targeted Public Distribution System (TPDS) has been made in the Rajya Sabha on 24.2.1997 and the detailed guidelines issued in this regard have also been laid on the Table of the House. As per the guidelines, the State Governments/UTAdministrations are required to identify the beneficiaries living Below the Poverty Line, based on the provisional estimates arrived at by the Planning Commission for the year 1993-94 adopting the methodology of "Expert Group on Estimation of Proportion and Number of Port" constituted by the Planning Commission under the Chairmanship of Late Prof. Lakdawala.

The State Governments/UT Administrations have accordingly been asked to identify the beneficiaries Below the Poverty Line, issue special ration cards to them and make all arrangements for delivery of foodgrains to the beneficiaries in a satisfactory and transparent manner. As soon as a State/UT completes this exercise, it can start deriving the benefits under the Targeted PDS. The Scheme of Targeted PDS will, however, become effective throughout the country from 1st June, 1997.
